

blacktea

Black teas owe their colour and depth of flavour to the process of oxidation. They are fully oxidised and contain the highest caffeine content of all teas, so are great to help kick-start your day and keep you going - 10 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Scoop size	Awards
	English Breakfast	This tea offers the perfect balance of a rich and malty Assam with the fragrance of an exceptional Darjeeling; with long, golden tips, beautiful leaves and an empowering aroma, this is how English Breakfast should be. A true classic.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp	Gold star award winner at the 2009, 2010 and 2011 Great Taste Awards
	Earl Grey Supreme	A blend of the finest whole-leaf black teas scented with oil of bergamot and sprinkled with cornflowers to make it as beautiful on the eye as it is on the palate. The leaf is large and well blended showing plenty of tip and offers a light, bright infusion. A true gentleman.	15ml - 1tbsp	Winner of two gold stars at the 2009 Great Taste Awards, and one gold star at the 2010 Great Taste Awards
	Darjeeling 2nd Flush	From May onwards, the Darjeeling summer teas are produced with succulent leaves and a sprinkling of silvery tips. Often referred to as the 'champagne' of teas, it offers a rich and full bodied aroma with hints of muscatel for which this tea is famed. The perfect afternoon tea.	15ml - 1tbsp	Winner of two gold stars at the 2009 Great Taste Awards, one gold star at the 2010 and 2013 Great Taste Awards
	Assam	June in India's lush Assam region, Assam is perfect for those who love an assertive cup of tea. It is of exceptional quality, full of shiny, golden tips and offers a bright ruby-red infusion, damson aroma and a rich, lively taste. Tall, dark and handsome.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp	Gold star award winner at the 2009 and 2012 Great Taste Awards

	Bohea Lapsang	The tea grows in soil which naturally gives the leaf a light tarry character, which is enhanced further by firing the tea over wood chippings to produce a fine, light smokiness. A sophisticated afternoon tea, which is excellent with cakes and sandwiches. James Bond in a cup.	15ml - 1tbsp
	Ceylon Vanilla	Whole-leaf black tea carefully scented with real vanilla for those of you who like something a little different. The subtleness of the vanilla pairs well with the smoothness of the black tea. Something sweet without the calories.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp	Winner of one gold star at the 2012 Great Taste Awards
	Ceylon	The beauty of the Sri Lankan landscape and the warmth of its people are certainly reflected in this wonderful Ceylon tea. Charmingly mellow and soothing with an excellent, pure flavour.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp
	Rose Gong Fu	Known by many as “The Emperor of Teas”, this is a traditionally made, black leaf tea from the Anhui Province of Eastern China. During manufacture the leaf is gently infused with whole rosebuds. The result is a light black tea with the wonderful scent and flavour of rose. An English country garden in a cup.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp
	Keemun Gong Fu	This is the premium Keemun tea available from Anhui. So good in fact, that the Chinese rarely sell it out of the country. The flavour is not dissimilar to Mao Feng, nutty in character, but with a crisp edge to it. A clean and assertive tea of excellent quality, it has an honest flavour and a sweet finish. Perfect for everyday drinking.	15ml - 1tbsp
	Yunnan Gold	Grown in the Yunnan Province of Southern China, the golden down covered buds develop into a brew with an auburn sheen, which delivers a rounded caramel richness with hints of ginger, nutmeg and cloves. Strong and full-bodied, it is particularly good first thing in the morning to help kick-start your day.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp

oolongtea

Oolong teas sit between un-oxidised green teas and fully oxidised black teas. For many they offer the perfect balance of low caffeine, high antioxidants and depth of flavor - 2 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Scoop size	Awards
 A cylindrical tin of Yellow Gold Oolong tea. The label features a stylized 't' logo with a green leaf, the text 'we are tea', and 'yellow gold oolong oolong tea'.	Yellow Gold Oolong	The name perfectly describes the infused tea. It provides for a moreishly sweet and honey-like tea which is difficult to fault and like all good Oolongs, is full-bodied and complex. Golden yellow sunshine in a cup.	15ml - 1tbsp
 A cylindrical tin of Monkey Picked Oolong tea. The label features a stylized 't' logo with a green leaf, the text 'we are tea', and 'monkey picked oolong tea'.	Monkey Picked Oolong	This tea takes its name from one of China's most famous tea legends; dedicated tea aficionados are said to have trained monkeys to pick an otherwise unobtainable tea from wild bushes overhanging Fujian's steep rocky mountains. It's roasted at high temperatures, which creates great depth of flavour. It has a sweet peachiness combined with rich toasty and chocolate-like flavour. Monkey legend aside, this tea is worth its weight in gold and an absolute joy	15ml - 1tbsp

greentea

Green teas are produced from the early buds and leaf tips. They are un-oxidised as they are exposed to heat soon after picking to halt the oxidation process, so are high in antioxidants and low in caffeine - 4 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Scoop size	Awards
	Gunpowder Supreme	A wonderful example of this ever popular green tea. It is believed to take its English name from the fact that the tea leaves resemble the pellets used in canons. Whether myth or fact, it is a joy to watch the gunpowder unfurl while infusing in hot water. Our Gunpowder is an early spring tea which gives a deliciously sweet and satisfying cup. Guaranteed to put a spring in your step.	10ml – 2tsp	Winner of one gold star at the 2010 Great Taste Awards
	Gunpowder Supreme with ginger	With a perfect balance of green tea and ginger, this exceptional blend is refreshing, reviving and inspiring. The warmth from the ginger lingers on the palate while the green tea warms the soul. Like all great double acts, it is impossible to tire of this wonderful combination.	15ml - 1tbsp
	Dragon Well (also known as Long Jing)	This is one of the finest and most sought after green teas in the world. The leaf is large, broad and dark green and once infused, it offers a bright cup with a beautifully sweet almost fruity character. Just how a green tea should be; light, fresh and full of energy with a lingering sweetness that will leave you savouring every sip. One cup is never enough.	15ml - 1tbsp	Winner of two gold stars at the 2009 Great Taste Awards, one gold star at the 2011 and 2013 Great Taste Awards
	Moroccan Mint	With a perfect balance of green tea and peppermint leaf, this exceptional blend is refreshing, reviving and inspiring. Like all great double acts, it is impossible to tire of this wonderful combination. The hint of mint cools the palate while the green tea warms the soul. This is superb either hot or over ice. Marrakech in a cup.	. 15ml - 1tbsp	Winner of two gold stars at the 2009 and 2011 Great Taste Awards, and one gold star at the 2013 Great Taste Awards

whitetea

White teas are among the rarest in the world. They are produced from the first buds and leaf tips and are the least processed of all teas. They are low in caffeine and are reputed to contain more antioxidants than any other tea - 4 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Scoop size	Awards
	Silver Needle	Long, soft and downy, Silver Needle tea is composed of hand-picked, first spring buds of the Da-Bai tea plant. The flavour is soft, mellow, with the freshness of honeydew melon. It's an easy-drinking tea that's ideal to kick-back and watch the world go by with. Spring sunshine in a cup and so good for you that you'll be feeling great from the inside out. Gold star award winner at the 2009 Great Taste Awards!	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp	Gold star award winner at the 2009 Great Taste Awards
	Jasmine Silver Needle (also known as Ying Zhen)	The marriage of the finest Silver Needle and fresh jasmine flowers creates the perfect balance of delicate white tea with sweet jasmine aromatics. A real treat at any time of the day or night. A marriage made in heaven.	20ml - 1tbsp + tsp	Winner of two gold stars at the 2009 Great Taste Awards, three gold stars at the 2010 Great Taste Awards and two gold stars at the 2013 Great Taste Awards
	White Peony	Fresh, mellow with hints of melon, White Peony tea is less delicate and more full-bodied than Silver Needle. It is composed of the tea bud and two lower leaves. A great tea to enjoy at any time of the day or night. A warm, summer's evening in a cup.	30ml - 2tbsp
	White Peony with Rose Buds	A simple yet inspirational blend of our finest White Peony with whole pink rose buds. The fresh and delicate white tea is complimented by the subtle floral undertones to create a superb infusion which soothes and delights. Simplicity and subtlety are the key to this tea's success; the two compliment one and other perfectly.	30ml - 2tbsp

infusiontea

Infusion teas are not actually teas as they do not come from the tea plant (Camillia sinensis), but we love them nonetheless. Most of our fruit and herbal infusions are caffeine free, high in antioxidants and offer additional health benefits. Whatever your mood, we should have an infusion to meet your needs – 6 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Scoop size	Awards
	Whole Chamomile Flowers	Grown on the Egyptian plains, our whole chamomile flowers are the epitome of fragrant, summery elegance. The light and bright infusion offers a stunning freshness and is remarkably calming. Perfect for late evenings.	30ml - 2tbsp
	Peppermint Leaf	Our traditional black peppermint leaf is grown in the English countryside. Once picked it is slow dried to retain its full flavour. Striking and strong, this peppermint infusion cleans your palate and aids digestion. Wonderful as an alternative after-dinner digestif.	30ml - 2tbsp	Winner of 2 gold stars at the 2010 Great Taste Awards
	Super Berry	Packed full of red berries, this infusion looks as good as it tastes. The infusion is bright and beautiful with a superb fruity flavour. It is naturally caffeine free and extremely refreshing. A very fruity little number.	30ml - 2tbsp	Winner of one gold star at the 2011 Great Taste Awards

	Rooibos (redbush)	High in antioxidants, vitamin C and caffeine-free; for many people this infusion offers a great combination of health and flavour. Rooibos is a South African wonder herb and it won't be long before we are all drinking it by the bucket-load. Nice and malty with a great depth of flavour and deep colour. Some use this infusion as a caffeine-free alternative to english breakfast.	30ml - 2tbsp
	Whole Rose Buds	Our beautiful whole rose buds release a euphoric flavour and aroma. Light and fragrant like a delicate perfume, this rose tea infusion is soothing, soft and refreshing. Beautiful and indulgent.	30ml - 2tbsp
	Honeybush	Our Honeybush tea is a naturally caffeine-free herb with near mythical health-giving qualities.	30ml - 2tbsp

supertea

Superteas are designed to help you deal with modern- day life. Each unique blend is specially designed to perk you up or chill you out. They include our teas and infusions combined with other natural ingredients that are really good for you - 8 blends.

Image	Name	Tasting notes	Brewing	Awards
	daintea – the slimming tea	Some people are born body beautiful while others have to work at it. We fall within the latter and although we may eat well, we are partial to the odd takeaway and have a penchant for carrot cake and are too busy to pound the treadmill everyday. We are also of the opinion that every little helps, so when we heard of a South American herbal drink that apparently aids weight loss, Daintea was born. Ingredients: Mate green, Pu-erh, stinging nettle, carrot pieces, aloe vera, beetroot, mallow petals, calcium, sunflower petals, magnesium	30ml - 2tbsp
	puritea – the detoxifying tea	Life is too short to eat nothing but tofu soup and drink mineral-free mineral water all in the name of detox. That's why we invented Puritea to help rid the body of free radicals. Free radicals are the bad guys, roaming the body and corrupting otherwise healthy cells. Puritea is an antioxidant-rich blend designed to help restore nature's delicate balance. Ingredients: Redbush, blackberry leaves, lemongrass, camomile, fennel, liquorice	30ml - 2tbsp

	Revitalize – the rejuvenating tea	Revitalize is designed to give your body and brain the necessary boost that they require to get them back to near full working order. Perfect for the morning after the night before. Take great pleasure in staying out all night and pulling the wool over your boss's eyes the following day. Ingredients: lemongrass, liquorice root, ginger, lemon peel, peppermint, pepper	30ml - 2tbsp
	Activitea – the energising tea	We may not be able to offer you an extra couple of hours in bed but we can kick-start your day with our little bundle of energy in a cup. Activitea is a 'wake me up before you go go' concoction to help get you going on even the most lacklustre of mornings. It's the tea equivalent of an ice-cold shower. Ingredients: black tea, sunflower petals, red rose buds, rose petals, fennel, aniseed, liquorice root, cardamon, black pepper, ceylon cinnamon bits, ginger bits, cloves.	20ml - 1tbsp + 1tsp
	Serenitea – the calming tea	Although we love to share things, everyone needs a little time out to relax, contemplate, de-stress, unwind and totally forget about the day that just was. After a day of stamping your feet, throwing your arms in the air and shouting from the rooftops this will help the anxiety and tension lift, the anger subside and the calmness return. Ingredients: green tea, tulsi, apple pieces, melissa, orange peel, lemon grass, lime blossom tree, lemon verbana	15ml - 1tbsp

	Immunitea – the helping hand tea	We all feel a bit run down from time to time and this is when we are at our most susceptible to all those nasty germs that frequent the public transport system and the office air conditioning. Immunitea is a true wonder tea and is so jam-packed full of goodness that it's like wearing a germ-repellent overcoat. Ingredients: white tea, bamboo leaves, pomegranate	30ml - 2tbsp
	Eternitea – the anti-aging tea	There is a school of thought that believes sleeping in an oxygen tent, some form of genetic engineering or succumbing to the surgeon's knife are the only ways of keeping the hands of time at bay. A far more wholesome formula is to eat, sleep and drink well and to retain an active body and mind. We may not have found the elixir of life but we do believe that our way is far more appealing and certainly less costly. The natural way to stay looking and feeling great is to look to Mother Nature for guidance, which is exactly what we have done. Ingredients: green tea, pear bits, ginkgo, beetroot, spirulina-powder, red rose buds	15ml - 1tbsp
	Felicitea – the happiness tea	Felicitea may not be able to fix the boiler, repair broken relationships or bring good luck but it can provide a moment of happiness and we think that is priceless. Could be enjoyed alone but is best served with a slice of friendship, a sliver of sympathy and a dollop of good advice. Ingredients: rooibos, carrot pieces, mallow petals, marigold petals.	30ml - 2tbsp	